“A fine state of Affairs”

Sakeena Jabeen
Kashmir

Summoned a swarm of sergeants in great rush,
Howled violently a routine policing,
Tried to befool a whole eye,
Switched to hole and corner policy,
Uff ! Only to maintain one’s own ground,
Unknown to them so greatly,
Here we go far and wide,
To Uphold a pride of nation,
As we are aware how to show feathers,
In midst of hallow hue and cry.
Knoweth well your intents and purposes,
Behind this paradoxical fine state of affairs,
Surely will let you lie in the bed, you have made,
Un-doubtly backed by moneyed work,
Jumped in haste to play duck n drakes,
Only to Pell-mell the ruled one.
Never seen such a witty stupid,
Dug his grave to grind his axe,
Left thousands out of gear,
Hark! You bloody lout,
Come out of this fool’s paradise,
We are here fully aware,
You are running business under false colors,
