NONE HAS GONE FAR FROM THE CITY.

Partha Sarkar

None has gone far from the city
Since returning the ventilator home
On a windy day and that's why
Grows longer the beard of the vicious circle
And gets wings the victor to fly from the paranoid syndrome
With a lot of smiling advertisements
As if they are victorious over the fall of the embryos and hospitals
Though there is no end to the mathematics
And no positivity to play football in rain.

Rolls down the earth
Eventually after the revolution
To another dogma- cul-de-sac.
